

WEBINAR ON YOUTH MIGRATION IN THE ALPS

Leaving Home, Staying Connected: The Future of Alpine Living

WEDNESDAY, 17 JUNE | 09:00–12:00 (CET)

LANGUAGE: ENGLISH

PLATFORM: ZOOM

Programme

09:00 | Start & Check-In

09:15 | The Pilot Showcase: Lessons from the OUT4INGOV project

- Establishment of a Youth Consultative Body in Maribor (Slovenia) | Regional Development Agency for Podravje - Maribor
- Setting up a Cooperation Group for young people in Cembra Valley (Italy) | Autonomous Province of Trento
- Gathering data through a Youth Observatory in Vesoul (France) | Vesoul Urban Community

10:00 | Best Practices I

- Label “Youth Friendly Mountain Villages” in Switzerland: empowering rural youth to counter out-migration | Swiss Centre for Mountain Regions

10:20 | Break

10:30 | Best Practices II

- Empowering local governance for a better quality of life in the Alps | Project “GOVQoL”
- Policy tools to attract talent in regions facing brain drain | Project “TALENT4S3”

11:00 | Panel Discussion: Youth Perspectives – the Alpine wide view

Young people from EUSALP & CIPRA Youth Council & OUT4INGOV pilots

11:40 | Wrap up & Outlook

12:00 | End of Programme

Register here

OUT4INGOV is an Interreg Alpine Space project funded by the European Union, supporting inclusive governance tools to turn youth migration into an opportunity for regional development.

Interreg

Co-funded by the European Union

Alpine Space

OUT4INGOV